Ghia – Out Of Luck (feat. Adriano Prestel)

Following the success of the „Out Of Luck“ single, we’re wrapping up the Ghia reworks chapter with „THE OTHER SIDE“ – a dynamic 12” vinyl loaded with three contemporary funk tracks and three instrumental cuts.

The release starts off with the title track on which we can hear another collaboration with vocalist ADRIANO PRESTEL. The song is built on the foundation of „Message From The Other Side,“ a synth-funk instrumental from last year’s „Don’t Stop“ LP. JIM DUNLOOP has skillfully rebuilt the infectious grooves from scratch, and guitarist LUCY LIEBE has contributed to the guitar elements. Interestingly, the 1985 original version contained vocals that were preserved on a demo tape. These original lyrics conveyed the idea that everyone should learn to listen to the other side. Adriano picked up this idea and wrote new verses and a new chorus, beautifully transforming the song into a soulful bliss. In today’s world, the message remains relevant: without listening, understanding, and compromise, solutions are elusive.

Next up, DJ FRICTION takes „OUT OF LUCK“ to new heights with a remix infused with electro-funk. The synth bass replaces the original, a punchier kick and a clap snare give it a classic boogie feel. Additional strings on the chorus and an extended build-up complete the transformation, making it a fantastic tune for any DJ set. MARIAN TONE returns to remix „THE OTHER SIDE“ in the ‚85 rework, blending parts of the original song with replayed instruments from the studio sessions. He adds clav sounds and retains the original marimba keys by Ghia’s Lutz Boberg. If you are into the 80s vibes, this rework will be your choice.

The flip side features instrumental versions that, even without vocals, are a special treat for all boogie and funk enthusiasts. Last but not least, the release includes the original mixdown of „Out Of Luck“ from when the recording was finalized at ED LONGO’s SOUNDRAYS STUDIO – offering a different take from the instrumental version on the previously issued 45 single.
